Líderes progresistas piden al presidente Joe Biden que retire los cargos contra Assange

Hoy, 11 de abril, líderes progresistas, intelectuales y ex jefes de Estado de todo el mundo, entre ellos Dilma Rousseff, Yanis Varoufakis, Roger Waters y Rafael Correa, han enviado una carta al presidente de Estados Unidos, Joe Biden, y a la presidenta de la Cámara de Representantes, Nancy Pelosi, para exigir a las autoridades estadounidenses que retiren los 18 cargos contra Julian Assange.

Hoy también se cumplen tres años desde que la Policía Metropolitana sacó a Julian Assange de la Embajada de Ecuador en Londres, lo detuvo y lo metió en la prisión de Belmarsh. Allí está recluido mientras los tribunales del Reino Unido deliberan sobre la solicitud de extradición a Estados Unidos, donde será juzgado por los 18 cargos, muchos contemplados bajo la Ley de Espionaje, y donde se enfrenta a una pena máxima de 175 años.

En caso que sea extraditado y condenado, sería la primera vez que se condena a un publicador bajo la Ley de Espionaje y sentaría un peligroso precedente para el derecho a la libertad de expresión y de prensa, no sólo en Estados Unidos sino en todo el mundo.

Assange, que durante su estancia en prisión ya ha sufrido intentos de suicidio, torturas psicológicas, brotes de COVID-19 y un grave deterioro de su salud física y mental, ha declarado que su extradición a Estados Unidos sería igual a una sentencia de muerte.

Muchos, incluyendo los firmantes de la carta, han denunciado que la persecución a la que se enfrenta Assange es una represalia por su valiente trabajo con Wikileaks desvelando la verdad sobre los crímenes cometidos por gobiernos de todo el mundo.

Apoya a Assange, defiende la libertad de prensa.

Dear President of United States and Speaker of the House,

We have been paying close attention to the legal process and trial of Australian journalist Julian Paul Assange, who is currently in prison in the United Kingdom where he awaits a final decision on the extradition request made by the government of the United States of America.

The United States of America has a long tradition of defending freedom of expression, freedom of thought, and freedom of the press. The philosophical, legal, political and social thought produced by intellectuals in the United States of America forms an important foundational framework for the reflection and realization of freedom of expression throughout the world. Likewise, the struggle of activists since the 19th century for this freedom has been a source of inspiration for countless societies and countries.

It is precisely in the name of this tradition, continually renewed by daily creation, that we, progressive leaders of the world, address you to ask that, within the scope of its constitutional and legal competence, in respect of due process of law, and the democratic rule of law, that Your Presidency exercise its prerogative of dropping all 18 charges leveled against journalist Julian Paul Assange.

With such a gesture, you will send a strong message to the world: that freedom of expression, freedom of thought, and freedom of the press constitute an instrument that can controvert the interests of any government, including that of the United States of America. The cases where there are reports of serious violations of freedom of expression would also be impacted by the dropping of the 18 charges against Assange. It would affirm the defense of this Fundamental Human Right and would undoubtedly represent a clear and robust sign that everyone can express their opinion without fear of retaliation; that all the press outlets can give news to all the citizens of the world, with the certainty that the pluralism of thought is guaranteed.

It is these considerations that lead us to address you, Mr. President and other American authorities, to request that you drop all 18 charges against Julian Paul Assange.

São Paulo, April 11, 2022.
